- Our style calls for no all caps releases, nor can we handle tabulated tables as it requires extensive editing that can introduce errors.
- Releases can be done in story format, or via bullet points or dashes.
- We have little room for results in print, due to the large number of meets, but we will do our best to post items online.

Example of bullet points.

- 1st place
- 2nd place
- Dashes can also be used.

Thank you for contacting us. How do the teams submit information to the league? We can probably use the same format, but ideally we would receive all reports in the exact same format.

Also, since you have dedicated representatives reporting the information, they may also be willing to take a photo or two, which we would be happy to use as space is available.

Thanks again,
